

MBA – Master of Business Administration

Make a change to your career, your personal life, and society, and enrol in our MBA programme today!

The EIM - European Institute of Management offers an EU-government accredited (MFHEA in Malta) and flexible in terms of time and place MBA - Master of Business Administration programme with extensive support specifically for successful leaders, managers, and entrepreneurs.

What are the entry requirements?

The entry requirements for the DBA are:

- ✓ Sufficient English language skills (e.g., B2 or above)
- ✓ Sufficient digital competences to work online in a Google environment
- ✓ At least 3 years of professional experience
- ✓ A relevant MQF/EQF Level 6 degree

If you do not have the required degree, it is possible to provide evidence sufficient experience with a professional portfolio.

What will be my specialization?

The final phase of study will be tailored to your chosen MBA specialization deepening knowledge and focusing on area specific content within each MBA students' experience or catered to their career goals.

MBA students typically choose specializations in:

- 1 Professional Services and SME Management - for all future entrepreneurs and freelancers
- 2 Financial Services Management - learn how to design new business models using AI or FinTech

- 3 Manufacturing Management - improve skills and knowledge about digitalization/ industry 4.0
- 4 Telecommunications Management - focus on how we communicate and exchange knowledge
- 5 Logistics and Mobility Management - learn how to manage global supply chains
- 6 Agribusiness Management - focus on agritech innovation to increase productivity
- 7 Tourism and Hospitality - increase knowledge about the industry including platform business models
- 8 Health Care Management - improve competences in the pharmaceutical and medtech industry
- 9 Renewable Energy Management - learn about sustainability, and circular economy

What is the structure of the programme?

The MBA programme consists of 4 phases, which are studied in 18 months or within at least 1.5 years.

Launching. In the first phase of study, MBA students will learn fundamentals about, business strategies, leadership, marketing and finance for decision-makers
Deepening. The second phase provides deep knowledge about entrepreneurship, business intelligence, global network strategies and AI.

Specializing. In the third phase of study, MBA students will focus on their specialization topic and gain substantial insights.

Final Master Project. In the final phase of study, MBA students will write their Master Thesis based on the topic of specialization

In all phases, you will be closely accompanied and supported by your MBA advisors.

What are my advantages?

Recognition of prior learning and professional experience

Experienced international faculty

Pay what you use

Networking

Online course delivery

Acquire additional certificates

Government Accreditation

Testing phase

Oxford-style teaching and learning method

Career opportunities

Flexibility

See for more details

<https://www.eim.education/masters-degrees/>

When can I start?

Select your preferred start date. Our doctoral programs start at the beginning of each new quarter in January, April, July, and October.

Where can I apply?

Click the "apply now" button on our website or contact our Admission Office under: admission@eim.education.

I have already started my MBA but never completed them. What can I do?

MBA Completion Pathway (MCP)

If you are "all but MBA" or have already completed one or the other MBA-level modules, our MCP may be the right solution for you on the way to the long-awaited MBA.

© Copyright 2026

EIM - European Institute of Management
Apt 5, 66, Old Theatre Street,
Valletta VLT 1427 Malta
Email: info@eim.education

My experience at EIM was consistently positive and professional from the very beginning, including onboarding and throughout my study sessions. I especially appreciated the expertise and guidance of the lecturers, who kept me focused and provided invaluable support drawn from their extensive experience in helping students succeed. That level of support made a real difference in overcoming challenges during the programme.

Stijn
MBA Alumnus

What impresses me most about the MBA program at EIM is definitely the flexibility, which empowers me to successfully integrate advanced studies with my professional journey. The tailored support and the opportunity to engage with industry leaders elevate this experience, making it both valuable and inspiring for my personal and career growth.

Mika
MBA Candidate

As part of our MBA program, we equip students with the essential tools, proven methodologies, and personalized guidance to help them reach their academic goals efficiently. Our commitment is to ensure every graduate completes the programme with high-quality.

Sarah
Programme Manager and Lecturer

Find further information about EIM's Master Degree Programs, including tuition fees and current news under <https://www.eim.education/masters-degrees/>

